

Most Holy Sacrament Church, Cherry Orchard

6th November, Thirty Second Sunday of the Year

www.cherryorchardparish.com

We were deeply saddened with the sad passing of Sr Siobhán Ní Mhaoilmhichíl on Monday last. May she rest in peace eternally and be rewarded for her life of service as a Dominican Sister including her service in our parish for the last number of Years. Deepest sympathies to Sr Ronnie and all the Dominican sisters as well as Sr Siobhan's family. Níl sa saol seo ach seal

November Altar of Remembrance

Most Holy Sacrament
Cherry Orchard, Dublin

November Altar List of the Dead

These are the November Lists of the Dead & Envelopes which you can get in the church. We ask you to write out the names of the deceased people you want remembered, return the envelope to the Church and we will include their names in all of the masses and prayers we celebrate during the month of November.

We also invite you to bring along photos or memorial cards of your beloved who are deceased and leave them on the altar for the month of November. It is another way of remembering our departed beloved ones. Maybe you could be an ambassador by letting other people know who mightn't know about this way of remembering the dead and you might kindly bring their remembrance photo/memorial card along for them.

The annual Mass of Remembrance for all who died and in particular for those who died in the past year will be on Saturday November 19th at 7.00pm

30th October, 2022

Share Appeal Sunday takes place on November 12/13, highlighting the important work funded by the weekly collection. The Share collection supports many services in the Archdiocese, including the support and resourcing provided by the Diocesan Offices to parishes and schools. A newsletter will be available on the weekend of November 12/13 detailing the work funded by Share along with a breakdown of figures. Thank you for your continued support for the weekly Share Collection.

November 9th is the anniversary of the founding of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists). The Congregation numbered less than 10 priests and brothers on this day in 1732. Alphonsus was the oldest at the age of 36. Each man was consumed with zeal for the poor, especially those living in the remote hill country surrounding Scala, on the outskirts of Naples. The most abandoned were the shepherd people who had little knowledge of the Gospel; here Alphonsus and companions began their mission. Preaching Christ's plentiful Redemption is the charism of the Congregation. Alphonsus and his companions were young and few in number, yet God called them to bring the Gospel to those in most need. Alphonsus was inspired by Jesus' own identity in line with Isaiah's prophecy: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor" (Luke 4:18a).
