memorial cards of your beloved who are deceased and leave them on the altar for the month of November. It is another way of remembering our departed beloved ones. Maybe you could be an ambassador by letting other people know who mightn't know about this way of remembering the dead and you might kindly bring their remembrance photo/memorial card along for them.

November Lists of the Dead & Envelopes

We ask you to write out the names of the deceased people you want remembered, return the envelope to the Church and we will include their names in all of the masses and prayers we celebrate during the month of November.

The Walk of Light is back on the Streets of Dublin. On Sunday, November 20, at 3.30pm the congregations of the Leeson Street and Rathmines area of south Dublin together with the Chaplaincy Centre of Trinity College Dublin and under the umbrella of the Dublin Council of Churches invite you to come and join them in a Walk that begins in Newman University Church on St Stephen's Green, leads across the Green and down Grafton Street and into Trinity College Chapel, with stops outside the gates of St Stephen's Green, at the Molly Malone Statue, and on the Front Square of Trinity College. Into Darkness, Great Light is this year's motto for this inter-church "pilgrimage" as we contemplate the great afflictions of our days: war, housing emergency and economic hardship, and climate collapse. In the face of these all-consuming and frightening challenges the Advent message of the coming of God's light is more urgent than ever.

The annual Mass of Thanksgiving for the Gift of Priesthood, organised by St Joseph's Young Priests' Society, will be held on Sunday, November 20, at 3.30pm in St Andrew's Church, Westland Row. The celebrant will be Fr Seamus McEntee, our Diocesan Chaplain and Director of Vocations for the Dublin Archdiocese. The homilist will be Fr Stephen Kennedy of the Institute of the Incarnate Word community
