Saint Clement Mary Hofbauer,— died March 15, 1820, Vienna, Austria), canonized May 20, 1909; feast day March 15; patron saint of Vienna. Redemptorist Saint.

The son of a butcher, Hofbauer worked as a butcher until 1780. Educated at Vienna University and ordained in 1785, he was authorized to establish Redemptorist monasteries in northern Europe. In 1788 he took up residence in Warsaw, where he worked for 20 years, establishing Redemptorist houses in Switzerland and southern Germany. In 1808, after Napoleon ordered the Redemptorist community at Warsaw disbanded and its members exiled, Hofbauer spent the remainder of his life in Vienna. There he established a monastery and continued to seek government approval for Redemptorist houses, which was granted shortly after his death. He was named patron saint of Vienna by Pope St. Pius X in 1914.

"St Patrick, A Stranger Bearing Gifts" is the theme for this year's ecumenical service on St Patrick's Day, 6pm in Dublin's ST Patrick's Cathedral. The theme is a reminder that St Patrick was not from these shores, in fact was held here as a slave that had been trafficked into Ireland after a raid on his parents' home in neighbouring Britain. After having been able to flee he returned to the land of his captors to foster a new beginning, bringing as a gift his own new-found faith in a loving God. Patrick's gift is an encouragement for us today to receive those who have come to us seeking shelter from situations of immense hardship. This service brings together the 14 churches from the Orthodox, the Roman Catholic, Protestant and Dissenting traditions who are in membership of the Dublin Council of Churches. All are welcome to join this celebration in poetry, words of Scripture, song and traditional Irish music. Poet John F. Deane and Rev Pr Florian von Issendorff of St Finian's Lutheran Church, Adelaide Road will address the gathering.
