WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

The World Day of the Poor is celebrated today on November 16, 2025, with the theme "You're my hope" (Psalm 71:5), emphasizing the importance of hope among the poor. This day serves as a reminder for Catholics to reflect on their responsibility towards the poor and marginalized in society. It encourages acts of charity and solidarity, highlighting the need to address the structural causes of poverty.

Write out the names of the deceased people you want to remember, return the envelope to the Church and we will include their names in all of the masses we celebrate during the month of November. Also bring along photos or memorial cards of your beloved who are deceased and leave them on the altar for the month of November. It is another way of remembering our departed beloved ones.
